

lished all kinds of records. Together they scored 33 runs, 36 hits and 82 men went to bat during the afternoon.

Four two-base hits were made, one triple and four home runs.

Merkle, Doyle, Miller and Houser each pulled four-basers.

McGraw used 17 men, putting substitutes in every position but shortstop and pitch.

Boston scored ten runs in the final inning.

Pittsburgh and Cincinnati split a double-header yesterday, King Cole pitching and winning the first game.

Philadelphia defeated Brooklyn, mainly through the work of Gavvy Cravath, who uncorked a pair of homers and a single, half the Philly hits.

Hummel of Brooklyn also smashed one for the circuit.

Moran, Brooklyn's midget center fielder, is developing into one of the most dependable hitters and base runners in the National circuit.

Infielder Arthur Bues, bought from Seattle last year by New York Giants, then turned over to Buffalo, has been purchased by the Boston Braves. Bues made 27 homers with Seattle last season.

Ad Wolgast starts rigid training in Los Angeles tomorrow for his match with Joe Rivers July 4. Ad has been taking it easy in the mountains.

Pittsburg team of defunct U. S. league started three-game series with Niesen's bunch at Gunther Park today.

Outfielder Butcher of Cleveland has been sold to New Orleans of Southern league.

Jack Johnson wants ring for his fight with Flynn to be 20 feet inside the ropes instead of 17.

Gavvy Cravath, who knocked 29 home runs with Minneapolis in the American Association last season, is after the National League record this year. He added two circuit bumps to his string yesterday.